

Target Population Criteria for Agape & Advance Youth Outreach Community Homes

1. Veterans: Our program is committed to supporting and providing housing solutions for military veterans who have served their country. We recognize the unique challenges that veterans may face in transitioning to civilian life and securing stable housing.

2. Individuals Facing Housing Instability: Our target population includes individuals who are experiencing housing instability due to various factors, including but not limited to:

- Financial challenges
- Work history-related housing denials
- Homelessness
- Domestic issues
- Health concerns
- Other housing-related barriers

3. Employment and Work History: We actively seek to assist individuals who have been denied housing due to their work history. Our aim is to provide opportunities for those who may have experienced difficulties securing housing based on their employment background. We believe that stable housing is essential for individuals to rebuild their lives, including addressing employment-related issues.

4. Eligibility Exclusions:

- Sexual Offenses: We do not accept individuals with a history of sexual offenses. Our program focuses on creating a safe and supportive environment for all residents, and we must prioritize the well-being and security of our community.
- Cases Pending Involving Violent Crimes Resulting in Injury: Individuals with cases pending, particularly those related to violent crimes resulting in injury, are not eligible for our program. Ensuring the safety and well-being of our residents is paramount.

5. Commitment to Inclusivity: While we have specific eligibility criteria, we remain committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive community. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, sexual orientation, or any other protected characteristic. Our goal is to provide support and opportunities to those who meet our criteria while respecting the dignity and rights of all individuals.

6. Case Assessment: Eligibility will be determined through a comprehensive case assessment, where we will evaluate the specific circumstances of each applicant. We recognize that each person's situation is unique, and our goal is to provide support to those who can benefit from our serv

By establishing these criteria, Agape & Advance Youth Outreach Community Homes aims to serve a diverse group of individuals, with a primary focus on veterans and those facing housing instability due to work history-related issues. Our commitment to inclusivity and creating a safe and supportive community is at the core of our mission.
